

10 November 2010
Media Release

Help Your Company Save Money at Techenomics Information Seminar

Techenomics International is holding a free Information Seminar discussing how Condition Monitoring can benefit equipment and save companies money on Tuesday 16 November, 2010 at Blackwater Civic Centre, Blackwater, Queensland at 2.30pm.

The Seminar will focus on who Techenomics is as a company, the products and services they offer including, Oil Analysis, Oil Sampling, Magnetic Plug inspections, Specialty Lubricants and Dispensing, Fuel and Lubricant monitoring and Static Wear Tray Monitoring and how these products and services can benefit companies. A demonstration of Techenomics Online Blue Oceans Software will also be given.

Key company speakers at the seminar include Chief Executive Officer Chris Adsett, Business Development Manager Jason Davis, and Queensland Operations Supervisor, Terry Lewis.

Seminar places need to be booked as soon as possible. To secure your place please contact: Terry Lewis on 0437 047 278.

-ENDS-

For further information please contact Jason Davis on T: 02 65712699 or e-mail: jason.davis@techenomics.com or visit www.techenomics.net

For media enquiries please contact Brooke Tolar on M: 0411 553 246 or e-mail brooketolar@gmail.com